Section 3.

(a) The purpose or purposes for which this non-profit corporation is formed are: To associate all Northern Ohio Quarter Horse owners in order to promote the Quarter Horse Industry, directing specific emphasis toward youth and the non-professional areas thereof; and to provide funds or income for charitable purposes in connection with participating and non-participating youth; and to provide for the physical, mental and moral development and fitness of all children connected therewith.

(b) To organize, establish, maintain and promote any and all activities within or without the State of Ohio, including but not limited to horsemanship programs, horse shows, sales, auctions, promotional contests and other activities of whatsoever nature, as established by the directors, in order to promote and provide for the development of youth and members of the organization and to provide funds for charitable purposes.

(c) To raise funds to provide for any and all activities necessary in order to further the purposes for which this corporation exists.

(d) To purchase, lease or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own, use, develop, mortgage, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of, all real or personal property necessary or convenient for use as promotional item for the corporation and/or to supply revenue to the corporation to enable it to carry on its enumerated purposes; to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire and to manage either as a principal or as an agent, premises to hold bingo, games, raffles, parties or any other form of entertainment or business in which revenues can be raised to enable the corporation to carry on its enumerated purposes, so long as said activities are not prohibited by laws; to employ public performers; to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire and to manage and dispose of any and all amusement devices which can be used to promote and/or raise revenues.

Section 4. Place of business shall be the address of the presiding Secretary but its members may be residents of any state, territory, or country. Its officers must be residents of Northern Ohio, as defined in Section 2.

Section 5. Indemnification – The Association shall indemnify and hold harmless any officers and directors of the Association, their personal representatives and heirs, against legal expenses, judgments, and expenses of settlement which the Association previously approves, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with an actual or threatened legal proceedings, if such person acted legally, in good faith and was duly authorized to act on behalf of the Association in the transaction from which legal liability arose, which was official Association business (except in relation to matters as to which he/she shall have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in respect of the matter in which indemnity is sought.) To preserve this right of indemnity, such person shall immediately notify the Association of such actual or threatened litigation, whereupon the Association shall have the right to direct defense thereof, including, but not limited to selection of counsel and direction of settlement negotiations.

Section 6. Whistleblower Policy

(a) NOQHA encourages complaints, reports or inquiries about illegal practices or serious violations of the association's policies, including illegal or improper conduct by the association itself, by its leadership, or by others on its behalf. Appropriate subjects to raise under this policy would include financial improprieties, accounting or audit matters, ethical violations, or other similar illegal or improper practices or policies.

(b) NOQHA prohibits retaliation by or on behalf of the association against officers, board members or volunteers for making good faith complaints, reports or inquiries under this policy or for participating in a review or investigation under this policy. This protection extends to those whose allegations are made in good faith but prove to be mistaken. NOQHA reserves the right to take any appropriate action against persons who make bad faith, knowingly false, or vexatious complaints, reports or inquiries or who otherwise abuse this policy.

(c) Complaints, reports or inquiries may be made under this policy on a confidential or anonymous basis. They should describe in detail the specific facts demonstrating the bases for the complaints, reports or inquiries. They should be directed to NOQHA's President or; if that person is implicated in the complaint, report or inquiry, it should be directed to any officer of the association. NOQHA will conduct a prompt, discreet and objective review or investigation. Officers, board members or volunteers must recognize that the association may be unable to fully evaluate a vague or general complaint, report or inquiry that is made anonymously.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS AND DUTIES

Section 1.

- (a) The Officers of the Association shall consist of a President, 1st and 2nd Vice Presidents, Secretary, and Treasurer. All officers except the Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected by a majority of the member's casting votes at the annual election. Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected by a majority vote of the Officers and Board of Directors. Secretary and Treasurer shall have full voting privileges.
- (b) The President, 1st and 2nd Vice Presidents, Treasurer and Secretary may succeed themselves in office. A term consists of one (1) year.
- (c) No individual shall be qualified to be elected as a Director of the Association unless he or she has been a member of the Association in good standing. Good standing is defined as having paid dues for membership for the current year prior to date of election and has not been expelled.
- (d) No individual shall be qualified to be elected as President, 1st Vice President, or 2nd Vice President, unless he or she has been a member of the Board of Directors for at least the 36 months prior to nomination.
- (e) The retiring President shall be a Director for one (1) year or until a successor is elected and qualified.

Section 2.

- (a) Election of Officers and Directors shall be by popular vote of all adult members as of September 1st. Balloting shall be by mail.
- (b) The nominating committee shall be appointed by the President at the June meeting. It shall consist of five (5) members. The Chairperson of this committee cannot run as an Officer; however, he or she may run as a Director. All other members may run for Officer or Director.
- (c) The reading of the ballot shall be at the September meeting at which time there may be nominations from the floor, nominations must be approved by a majority vote of the Officers and Board of Directors to be placed on the ballot.

(d) Numbered ballots will be mailed as soon as possible after the September meeting. Ballots must be returned by October 10th to the chairman of the Nominating Committee. In the event the chairperson's name appears on the ballot, said ballots shall be returned to a committee member whose name does not appear on the ballot. If all members of the committee are on the ballot, said ballots shall be returned to the secretary of NOQHA.

(e) Ballots will be opened and counted by the Nominating Committee and the report given at the November meeting.

(f) New Officers and Directors will take office at the close of the regular November meeting at which time appointed Directors shall be made by the new Officers and Board of Directors.

(g) There is hereby created an Executive Committee consisting of the President and four (4) members and one alternate elected by the Officers and Board of Directors at the December meeting of the board, each for a term of one year and until a selection and qualification of his successors.

(h) The Executive Committee shall meet whenever and wherever called by direction of the President or two members of the committee. The Executive Committee may act, without convening in meeting, by written resolution signed by all the committee members, thereof and duly entered in the Association records. At all meetings of the committee five committee members shall constitute a quorum. The alternate will cast a vote only when a regular member of the Executive Committee is unable to be reached with 72 hours. If a vacancy occurs on this committee, or a member of this committee is unable to fulfill his duties for a period of 30 days, the alternate will replace him and the Board of Directors will then elect a new alternate.

Section 3.

(a) President: The President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Association and shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors.

(b) The President shall see that the By-Laws, rules and regulations of the association are enforced and shall perform all other duties that may be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

(c) The President shall be ex-officio a member of all committees with voting privileges unless a regular member of the committee.

Section 4.

- (a) Vice Presidents: In the absence of the President, the 1st Vice President shall have the powers and shall perform the duties of the President and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.
- (b) Should the office of President become vacant due to death, resignation, or incapacitation, the 1st Vice President shall immediately become the President upon notification of the vacancy to the Board of Directors. The 2nd Vice President will assume the responsibility of the 1st Vice President, who assumed the Presidency, and the Board of Directors will elect a new 2nd Vice President from the Board of Directors. If the 1st Vice President is unable or unwilling to fulfill the Presidency, the 2nd Vice President will immediately become the President upon notification of the vacancy to the Board of Directors. The 1st Vice President will retain their office. The office of the 2nd Vice President will be filled by the Board of Directors. If the 2nd Vice President is unable or unwilling to fulfill the Presidency, the Board of Directors will elect a new President from the Board of Directors.
